Southern Arc to Host Investor Session at PDAC on March 6, 2011

Vancouver, B.C.: Southern Arc Minerals Inc. (“Southern Arc” or the “Company”) (TSX Venture: SA) is pleased to announce that on March 6, 2011 the Company will host a corporate presentation coinciding with the start of the Prospectors & Developers Association of Canada (PDAC) international mining conference, to be held in Toronto, Canada.

The session will be held in the Alberta Room at the Fairmont Royal York Hotel. Presentations by directors and officers of the Company and will provide a corporate update, an overview of exploration target types and their implications with case studies applicable to Southern Arc’s properties, the Company’s gold and copper-gold exploration strategies and programs, and its joint ventures with major mining companies.

More details on venue, timing and specific program will be made available on the Company website at <http://www.southernarcminerals.com>. As space for this event is limited, those who are interested in attending the session should contact the Company as soon as possible.
